WORKBOOK

Practice Round

You will be given one minute to create as many words as you can.

Rules:

1. Each word must be at least two letters long.
2. No proper nouns (e.g., Larry, Mexico, Boston Red Sox).
3. Use each of the 7 letters only once per word.
4. Words can only be used in one form (e.g., “task” or “tasks”; not “task” and “tasks”).

GOAL:

It is important that you commit to a specific yet attainable goal.

Your goal is to create words during the allotted 1 minute using these 7 letters.

The goal is difficult, but realistic. In previous studies, many students were able to create or more words per round using the same group of letters you are about to see.

Please answer the following questions about your goal:

	Not at all	Slightly	Moderately	Quite a bit	Extremely
1. How committed are you to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
2. To what extent do you care about this goal?	1	2	3	4	5

WORKBOOK

Practice Round

You will be given one minute to create as many words as you can.

Rules:

1. Each word must be at least two letters long.
2. No proper nouns (e.g., Larry, Mexico, Boston Red Sox).
3. Use each of the 7 letters only once per word.
4. Words can only be used in one form (e.g., “task” or “tasks”; not “task” and “tasks”).

GOAL:

It is important that you commit to a specific yet attainable goal.

Your goal is to create words during the allotted 1 minute using these 7 letters.

The goal is difficult, but realistic. In previous studies, many students were able to create or more words per round using the same group of letters you are about to see.

Please answer the following questions about your goal:

	Not at all	Slightly	Moderately	Quite a bit	Extremely
1. How committed are you to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
2. To what extent do you care about this goal?	1	2	3	4	5

GOAL:

It is important that you commit to a specific yet attainable goal.

Your goal is to create words during the allotted 1 minute using these 7 letters.

The goal is difficult, but realistic. In previous studies, many students were able to create or more words per round using the same group of letters you are about to see.

You will earn an additional $1.00 for each round that you meet this goal.

Please answer the following questions about your goal:

	Not at all	Slightly	Moderately	Quite a bit	Extremely
1. How committed are you to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
2. To what extent do you care about this goal?	1	2	3	4	5

WORKBOOK

Practice Round

You will be given one minute to create as many words as you can.

Rules:

1. Each word must be at least two letters long.
2. No proper nouns (e.g., Larry, Mexico, Boston Red Sox).
3. Use each of the 7 letters only once per word.
4. Words can only be used in one form (e.g., “task” or “tasks”; not “task” and “tasks”).

Trial Round # 1

Trial Round # 2

AODJGIP

GOAL:

It is important that you commit to a specific yet attainable goal.

Your goal is to create words during the allotted 1 minute using these 7 letters.

The goal is difficult, but realistic. In previous studies, many students were able to create or more words per round using the same group of letters you are about to see.

You will earn an additional $1.00 for each round that you meet this goal.

Please answer the following questions about your goal:

	Not at all	Slightly	Moderately	Quite a bit	Extremely
1. How committed are you to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
2. To what extent do you care about this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
3. How dedicated are you to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
4. To what extent have you chosen to be committed to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5

After answering the questions above, please wait. The researcher will tell you when to continue.

WORKBOOK

Practice Round

You will be given one minute to create as many words as you can.

Rules:

1. Each word must be at least two letters long.
2. No proper nouns (e.g., Larry, Mexico, Boston Red Sox).
3. Use each of the 7 letters only once per word.
4. Words can only be used in one form (e.g., “task” or “tasks”; not “task” and “tasks”).

GOAL:

It is important that you commit to a specific yet attainable goal.

Your goal is to create words during the allotted 1 minute using these 7 letters.

The goal is difficult, but realistic. In previous studies, many students were able to create or more words per round using the same group of letters you are about to see.

You will earn an additional $1.00 for each round that you meet this goal.

Please answer the following questions about your goal:

	Not at all	Slightly	Moderately	Quite a bit	Extremely
1. How committed are you to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
2. To what extent do you care about this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
3. How dedicated are you to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5
4. To what extent have you chosen to be committed to this goal?	1	2	3	4	5

After answering the questions above, please wait. The researcher will tell you when to continue.
